NEW TODAY

U. S. ENGR. OFFICE, Honolulu, Hawaii, Sept. 25, 1912.—Sealed proposals for dredging in Hilo and Kahului Harbors, Hawaii, will be received here until 11 o'clock a. m., November 9, 1912, and then publicly opened. Information on application to Lt. Col. Thomas H. Rees, Custom House, San Francisco, Cal., or this office. W. P. WOOTEN, Major, Engineers.

The wedding invitation means much in Barcelona, Spain. For then every one must go and give a coin to the bride. That is for her dowry. The father is usually unable to furnish one. He has had to buy a house for her and fit it up, and that is usually expensive.

POLITICAL NEWS AND NOTES

Sheriff Jarrett—The work of the convention is panned, and I am glad that I won the first round. The next thing is to watch for the second round on election day.

Deputy Sheriff Chas. Rose—Vote for Ambrose Wirtz, the dictator of the "Moose" forces. I understand he is one of the best political orators in the Territory.

C. P. Iaukea—Since my nomination in the Democratic convention for senator I will now prepare myself for the coming campaign. If elected in November, I will do what is right and just to the general public.

James Coke—I am not afraid to go out in the battlefield to make my campaign. I think I have enough of Hawaiian friends, besides the haoles, to elect me to office.

Mayor J. J. Fern—I received the third nomination for the office of mayor on my birthday anniversary. I was forty years old yesterday.

H. H. Plummer—I hail from Waialua, and expect to get elected in November. I think I am good enough to run for supervisor.

T. J. Ryan—Every delegate in the Democratic county convention yesterday thought that I was a wireless operator, because I had my hearing apparatus on during the convention.

Jessie Uihili—Never had the race issue entered my mind when I moved that a Hawaiian be elected as chairman of the Democratic convention, which ended its work last night.

G. K. Keavachaka—I was nominated for representative from the fourth district; but then I am not pau making my preparation for a general campaign. Jack Kalakia, whom I and my friends wanted to run for sheriff, turned his back on us at the last moment, and it is now up to us to see that he is given proper salute on the election day.

Jack Kalakia—Of course I agreed to run for the shrievalty, but, since that time I changed my mind. I have done no harm to my friends.

H. M. Kaniho—The "cannon ball" of Kohala has been transferred to Honolulu. I am going to try hard to get elected as representative from the fifth district.

C. J. McCarthy—The work of the Democratic county convention has been satisfactory. As chairman of that assembly I can say that every man in the hall did his best to expedite the work of the convention. So far, no "kicks" have been lodged with me by anyone.

J. M. Poeoe—They wanted me to run for senator, but I refused. Now I am a candidate for representative from the fifth district.

E. J. McCandless—I can assure you, fellow citizens, that I am an expert painter and florist. If elected as a representative in November, I will try to clean up the dirty work of the board of health during the mosquito and banana campaign.

M. C. Pacheco—Everybody calls me "kahuna nui," because I can predict the victory of the Democratic candidates for various offices. I am aspiring for a supervisory honor. If elected in November, I will try to pass an ordinance permitting the kahunas to practice their profession.

Sam Hardesty—I am a Kaimukite. This is a good chance for the Republicans to vote for me in November. I pledge myself to do what is poliolei.

Chas. K. Noley—The Home Rulers are all right. The Republicans and Democrats have had their general fight in their respective conventions; but, as usual, the Home Rulers conducted their work harmoniously. I think I will be elected as the next Delegate to Congress.

L. L. McCandless—While on Kauai I expect to capture some strong Republican leaders. I will return next Sunday morning.

JOE COHEN OUT WITH PLATFORM

Joe Cohen, who has come out as an "independent candidate" for the Senate, following his withdrawal from the race during the Republican county convention, has announced his platform. It is as follows:

I stand for and endorse the platform of the Republican party as approved by Kihio, our delegate to congress, and adopted by the Republican territorial convention held on Sept. 16th, 1912.

In addition to that plank relating to land and water and the encouraging of homesteaders, I favor the issuing of necessary bonds, the proceeds to be used for assisting homesteaders by the proposed commission.

Said commission to have the power to appoint agricultural experts as agents to instruct homesteaders on the various islands as to how to cultivate lands, produce crops and make a success of their homesteads; and also to create marketing divisions for the proper marketing of said crops.

Labor. The wonderful prosperity of Hawaii with increased revenues to capital has created an increased cost of living. These conditions demand a corresponding increase in the pay for labor. I stand for and demand a square deal for labor and advocate an increase of the legal rate of pay for government laborers by the next legislature.

Taxation. The burden of taxation should fall upon those best able to bear it. I advocate an increase in the exemption on the income tax to at least $2,000.

I favor the continuation of the conservation tax on the following lines: First—That the said conservation tax on incomes over $6,000 be increased to 2½ per cent.

Second—A portion of this tax to be used to pay interest and to create a sinking fund for the redemption of bonds issued for the purpose of aiding homesteaders.

Third—A portion to be used for public improvements, such as good roads, parks, etc., thus insuring the improvement of our city as well as extra employment of citizen labor at increased wages.

Fourth—The major portion to go for conservation and the importation of such plantation labor as shall not come in competition with citizen labor.

Direct Primary Law. The power that controlled the last Republican county convention has shown by its unfair tactics that it is ready to adopt any means, no matter how despicable, to accomplish its aim of controlling the legislature in the interest of one industry only and to further turn the senate of the territory of Hawaii into an executive committee of the planters' association.

The primary law would deny them the power of controlling conventions and dictating nominees.

For that reason I have no confidence in their pledge to pass such a law. They broke their pledge before and I firmly believe they will do it again.

For this reason I re-affirm that plank pertaining to a general primary law and pledge myself to work for same if elected.

Smith, Wilson B. Burt, Arthur M. Shipp, 20th Infantry; Captain Herbert J. Brees, cavalry; Captain Douglas M. Kaskey, 1st cavalry; Lieutenant Maxwell Murray, C. A. C.

General Officers Shifted. General officers of the army have been shifted to a considerable extent, according to a War Department order received in this morning's mail. The following are the changes: Major General Wm. H. Carter, relieved from duty with General Staff, to command Central Division; Major General W. W. Wotherspoon, assigned to General Staff, relieved from command of Department of the Gulf; Brigadier General R. K. Evans, relieved of duty as Chief of Division of Militia Affairs, to command Department of the Gulf; Brigadier General Albert Mills, relieved duty General Staff, to be chief of the Division of Militia Affairs; Brigadier General Wm. Crozier, relieved from duty as Chief of Ordnance, to be president Army War College.

Fort De Russy Visited. General Macomb, accompanied by his aide Lieutenant Andrews, visited Fort de Russy this morning. General Macomb went over the ground and made an informal inspection of the new work being done there.

to $300,000 may not be an extravagant estimate.

A woman owning two fishing rights in Kaneohe Bay lays claim to $5000 for one and $2500 for the other. As $1000 worth of squid alone is taken out of one of the Kaneohe fisheries—whether one of those mentioned or not can not be said—the opinion was expressed by an outsider this morning that $15,000 would not be an unreasonable claim for the fee simple of the property.

BUSINESSMEN SAIL TO ATTEND CIVIC CONFERENCE

Although there was no band present at 10 o'clock this morning, to mark the departure of the delegates to the civic conference to be held at Hilo, beginning tomorrow, the business men who went aboard the Mauna Kea for the trip were thoroughly imbued with civic pride, and it was generally commented upon that the departure of this delegation from Honolulu to attend the first civic conference ever held in the Islands, marked a distinct step forward in the march of progress.

Perhaps there would have been a larger crowd present to see the delegates off, but it seemed to have been understood that the vessel would not leave the wharf until 12 o'clock, and when it pulled out at 10 o'clock there was some surprise expressed by those who arrived too late.

Several who had intended to take the trip were forced to change their minds at the last minute, but as it was, the delegation from Honolulu was a representative one, thoroughly equipped to promote the interests of Honolulu and the Islands at large at the convention.

The delegates and others who registered at the Promotion Committee's offices to take the trip were as follows:

T. E. Wall, A. Gartley, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Frazier, G. P. Wilder, F. C. Atherton, C. A. Stobie, G. F. Bush, W. C. Parke, Zeno K. Myers, H. Gooding Field, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wood, J. A. Balch, C. S. REMEMBER THE DATE AND PLACE

THE LOST "MONA LISA"

In its "Notes from Paris," the London Truth gives what its correspondent asserts to be "the truth at last" about the mysterious disappearance of Mona Lisa from the Louvre. We shall never see the famous painting again, he assures us, because it was not stolen, but destroyed. He "learns" that it perished in the Louvre, a vengeful employe, smarting at dismissal, having poured sulphuric acid over the picture. This outrage was committed over a year or more before the reported theft of Gioconda. The custodians, it seemed, hoped that the original could be restored, and hung a copy in the galleries. But when it was certain that the acid had done its work too fatally, burning the varnish and destroying the colors, and when experts began to whisper their doubts about the substitute, it was decided to let the painting be "stolen." The police were allowed to work on that theory, although high officials from the first perceived its improbability. This was thought to be kinder to the public than frankly to admit that Mona Lisa was gone forever, while to let out the true story would have reflected even more severely than the report of the theft of the masterpiece upon the laxness of the Louvre staff.

Paris correspondent of Truth is kind enough to point out that some parts of his revelation cannot be vouched for with "the same certainty" as others; but it is obviously a very pretty unveiling of the truth, as it stands.—Evening Post, New York.

Germany is to make a strenuous endeavor to capture the South American trade when the canal opens by making a wonderful exhibit at the world's fair at San Francisco in 1914. President Roosevelt has reached Missoula, Montana, in his tour of the country. He is headed toward San Francisco, where he will speak on or about September 14th.

Officials are investigating the report that the produce dealers of Los Angeles have a secret trust to maintain prices and stifle competition.
